International Context and Supply Chain

Dear Valued Customer,

In a ever-changing international environment, various challenges continue to influence supply chains and certain market dynamics.

At Ralik, we rigorously monitor the situation to anticipate potential repercussions and to support our clients with professionalism, clarity, and consistency.

Our teams collaborate closely with our procurement and logistics partners to minimize operational impacts, maintain service continuity, and effectively meet our clients' expectations.

We remain fully committed to communicating proactively and transparently whenever the situation requires or allows it.

For any questions or for a more in-depth discussion regarding your situation, your Ralik representative is available to provide personalized support.

We sincerely thank you for your continued trust in Ralik.
